DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 5, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kotani et al. (5,545,243).
3. Kotani et al. '243 teach a porous honeycomb filter comprising a plurality of cordierite partition walls with a porosity of 45-60%, an average pore diameter of 15-35 microns and a coefficient of thermal expansion at 40-800°C of less than $1.0 \times 10^{-6}/^{\circ}\text{C}$. The pore structure is adjusted so that $1000M + 85N \geq 30$, wherein M is a specific surface of total pores continued from a surface to an inner portion of the filter and N (microns) is a surface roughness. Specific embodiments such as samples 12 and 13 in Table 2 satisfy the formula in instant claim 5 (see abstract, col. 2, lines 21-31, col. 4, lines 13-39).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kotani et al. '243.

Art Unit: 1724

6. Kotani et al. '243 disclose all of the limitations of the claims except that the partition wall has a thickness of 350 microns or less. Absent a proper showing of criticality or unexpected results, the wall thickness is considered to be a parameter that would have been routinely optimized by one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention in order to achieve a high filtration efficiency while maintaining sufficient structural integrity.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 6 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The additional references listed on the attached PTO-892 form disclose ceramic honeycomb structure.
